DEDICATION

We dedicate this 1946-1947 SUNDIAL to Mr. Robert H. McKay. Even though he could not always be with us at school, his deep interest and concern followed us and became an inspiration to every student and teacher. Those of us who knew Mr. McKay as a teacher at Sunset or as principal of Greiner have always loved and respected him; and those who have come to know him only this year have that same feeling for him.

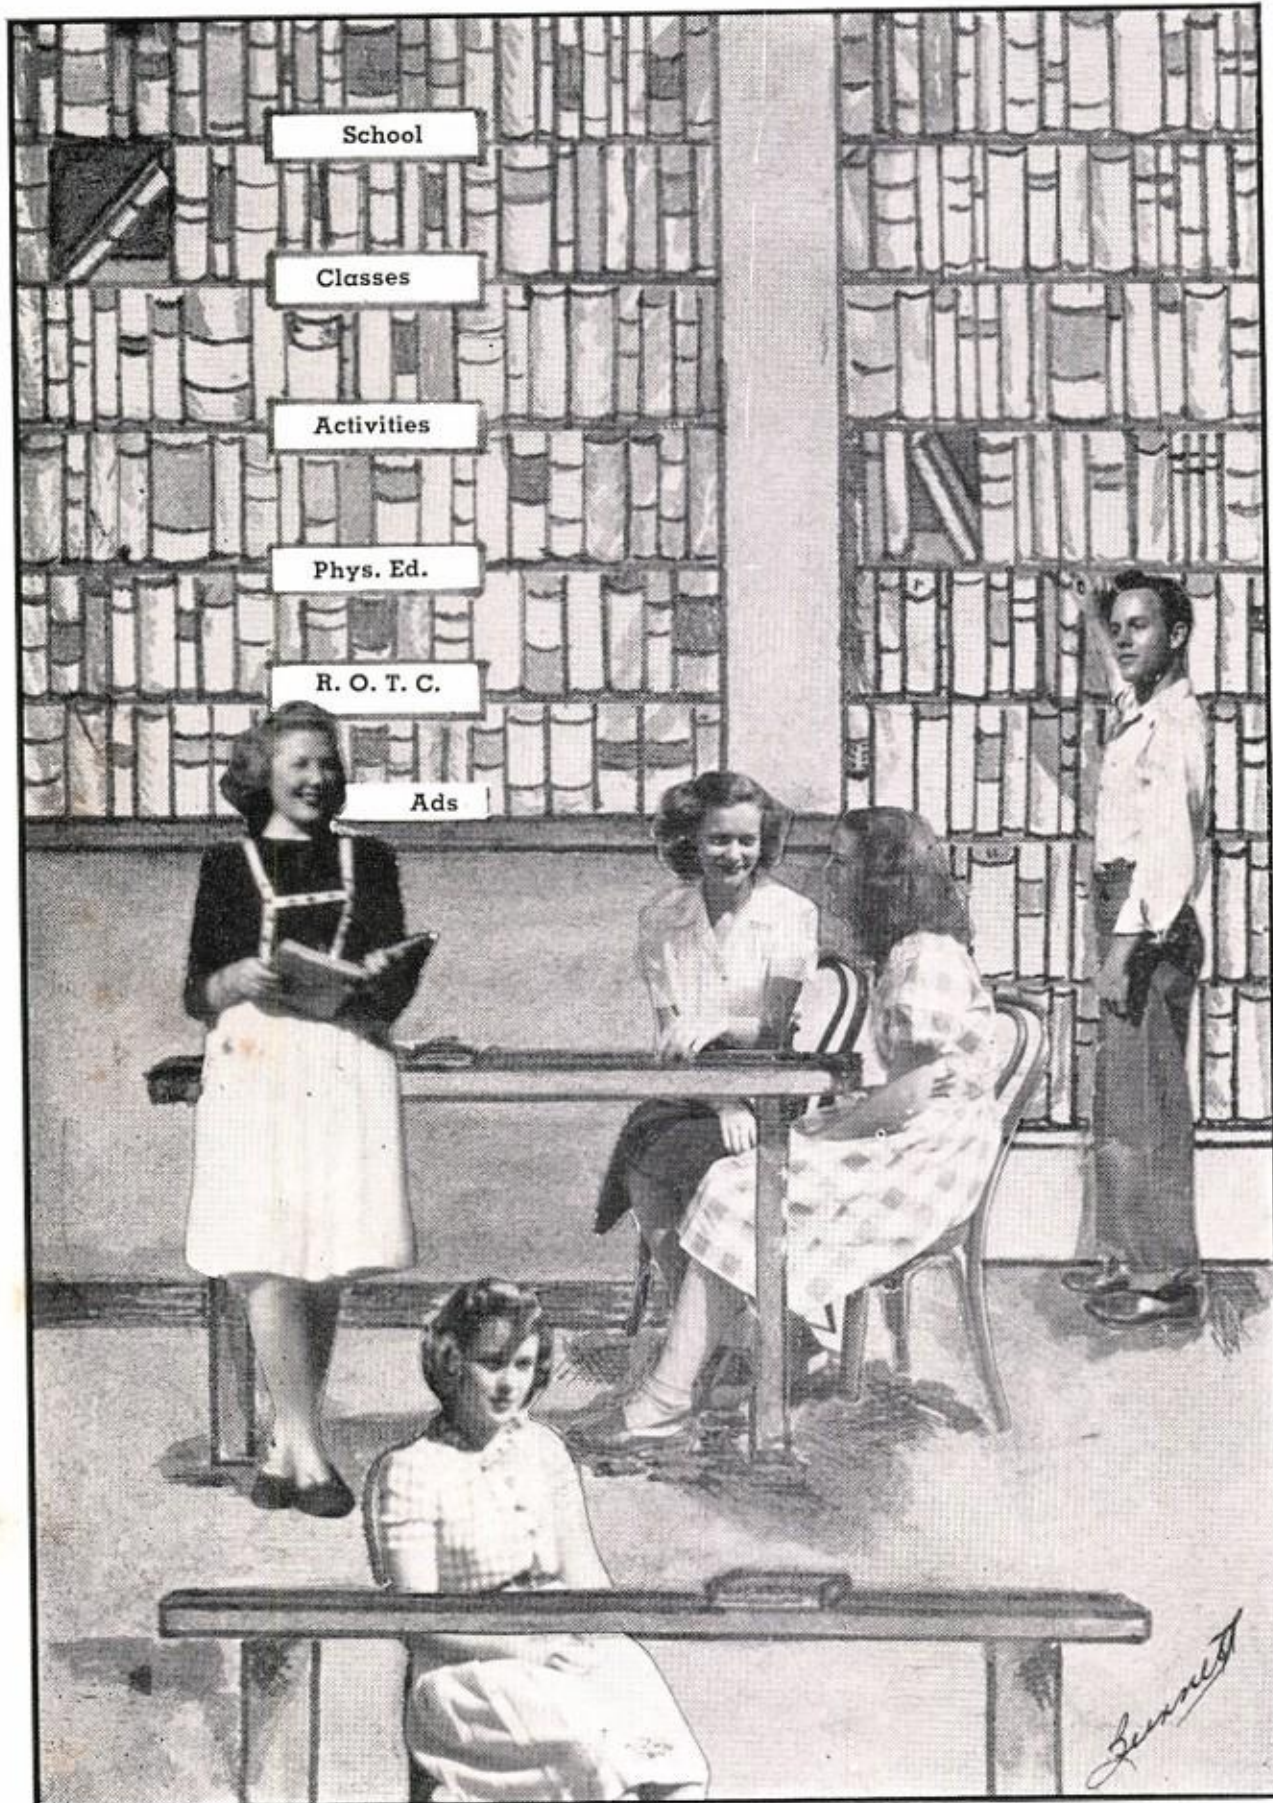

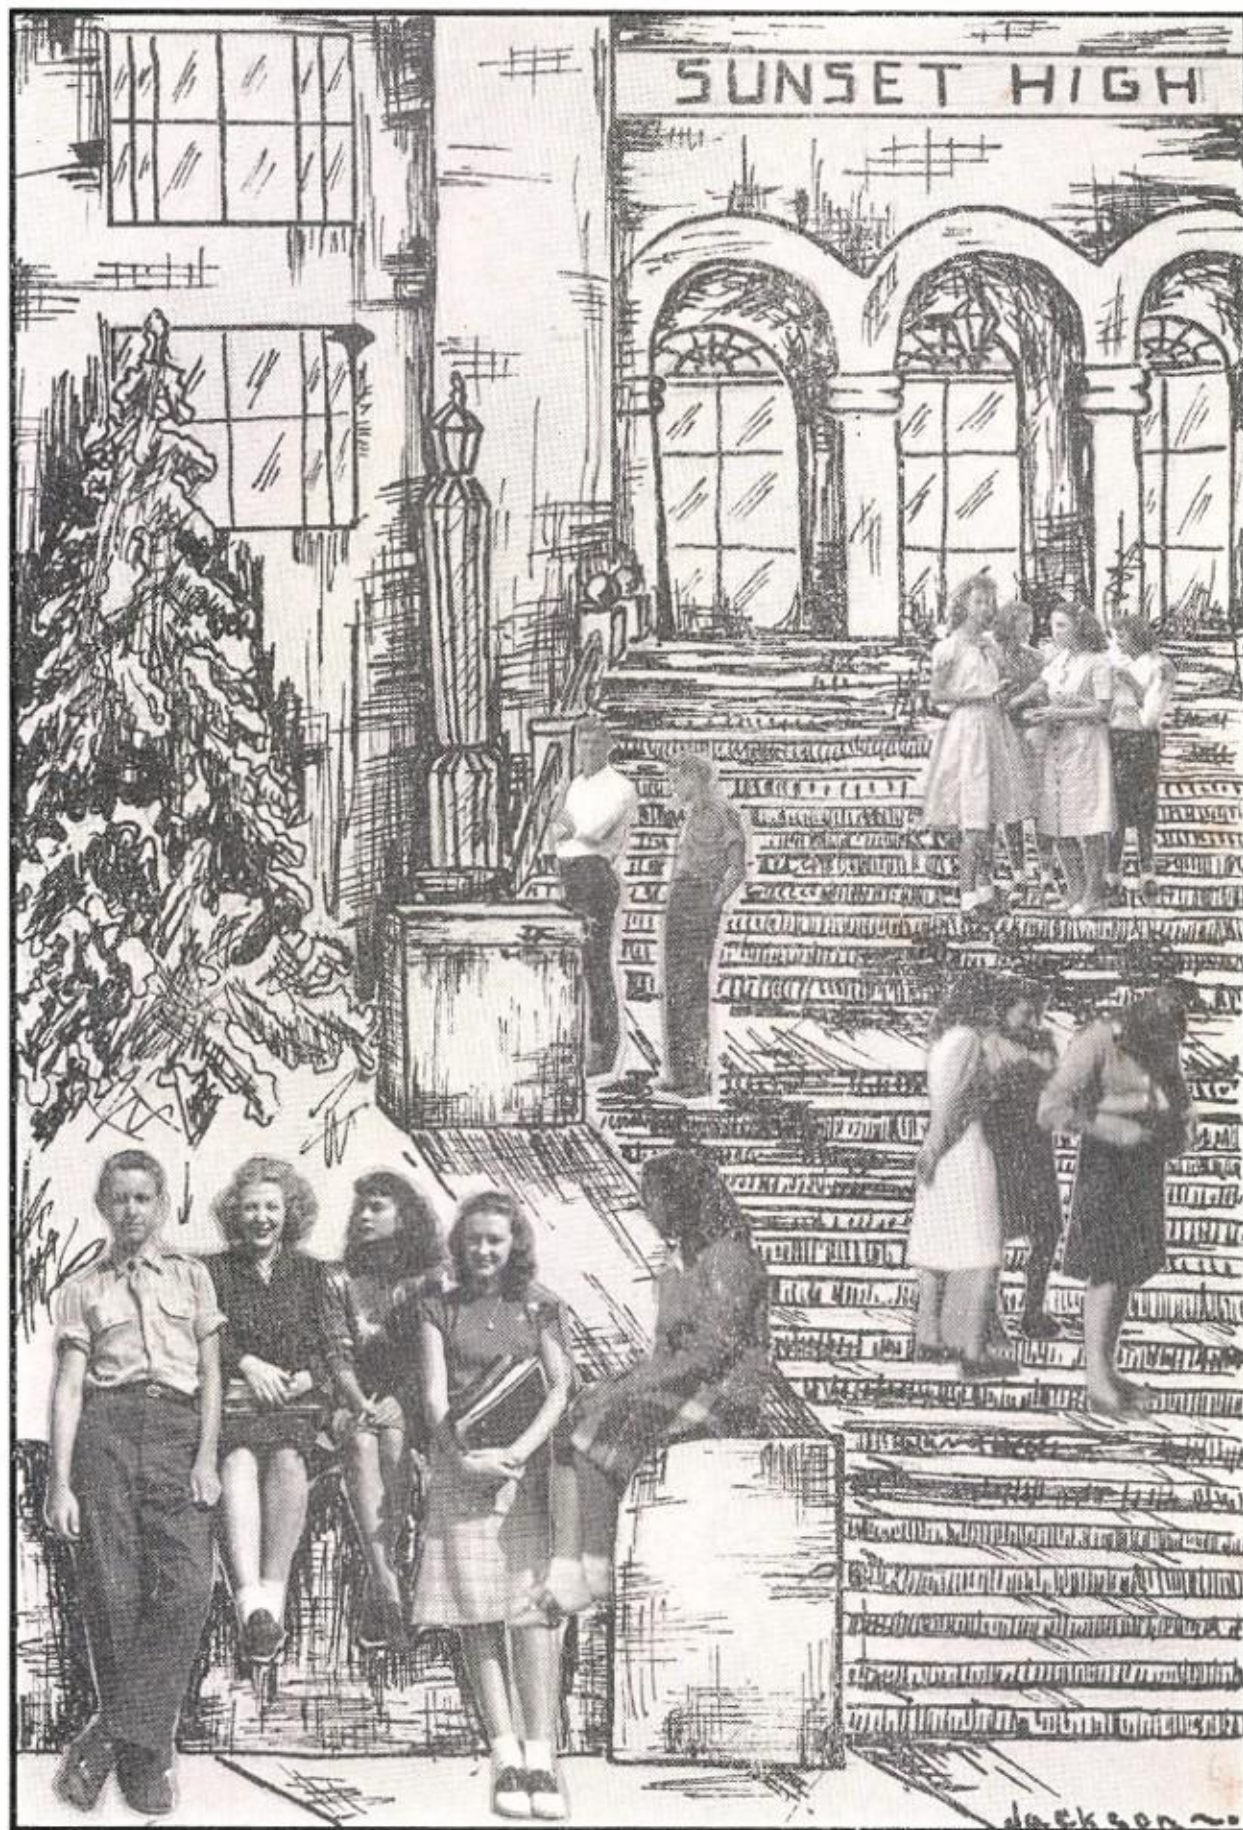

ROBERT H. McKAY

Order of Books

Our high school days are over now,
And commencement time is here;
To all the world we make our bow,
And face it without fear.

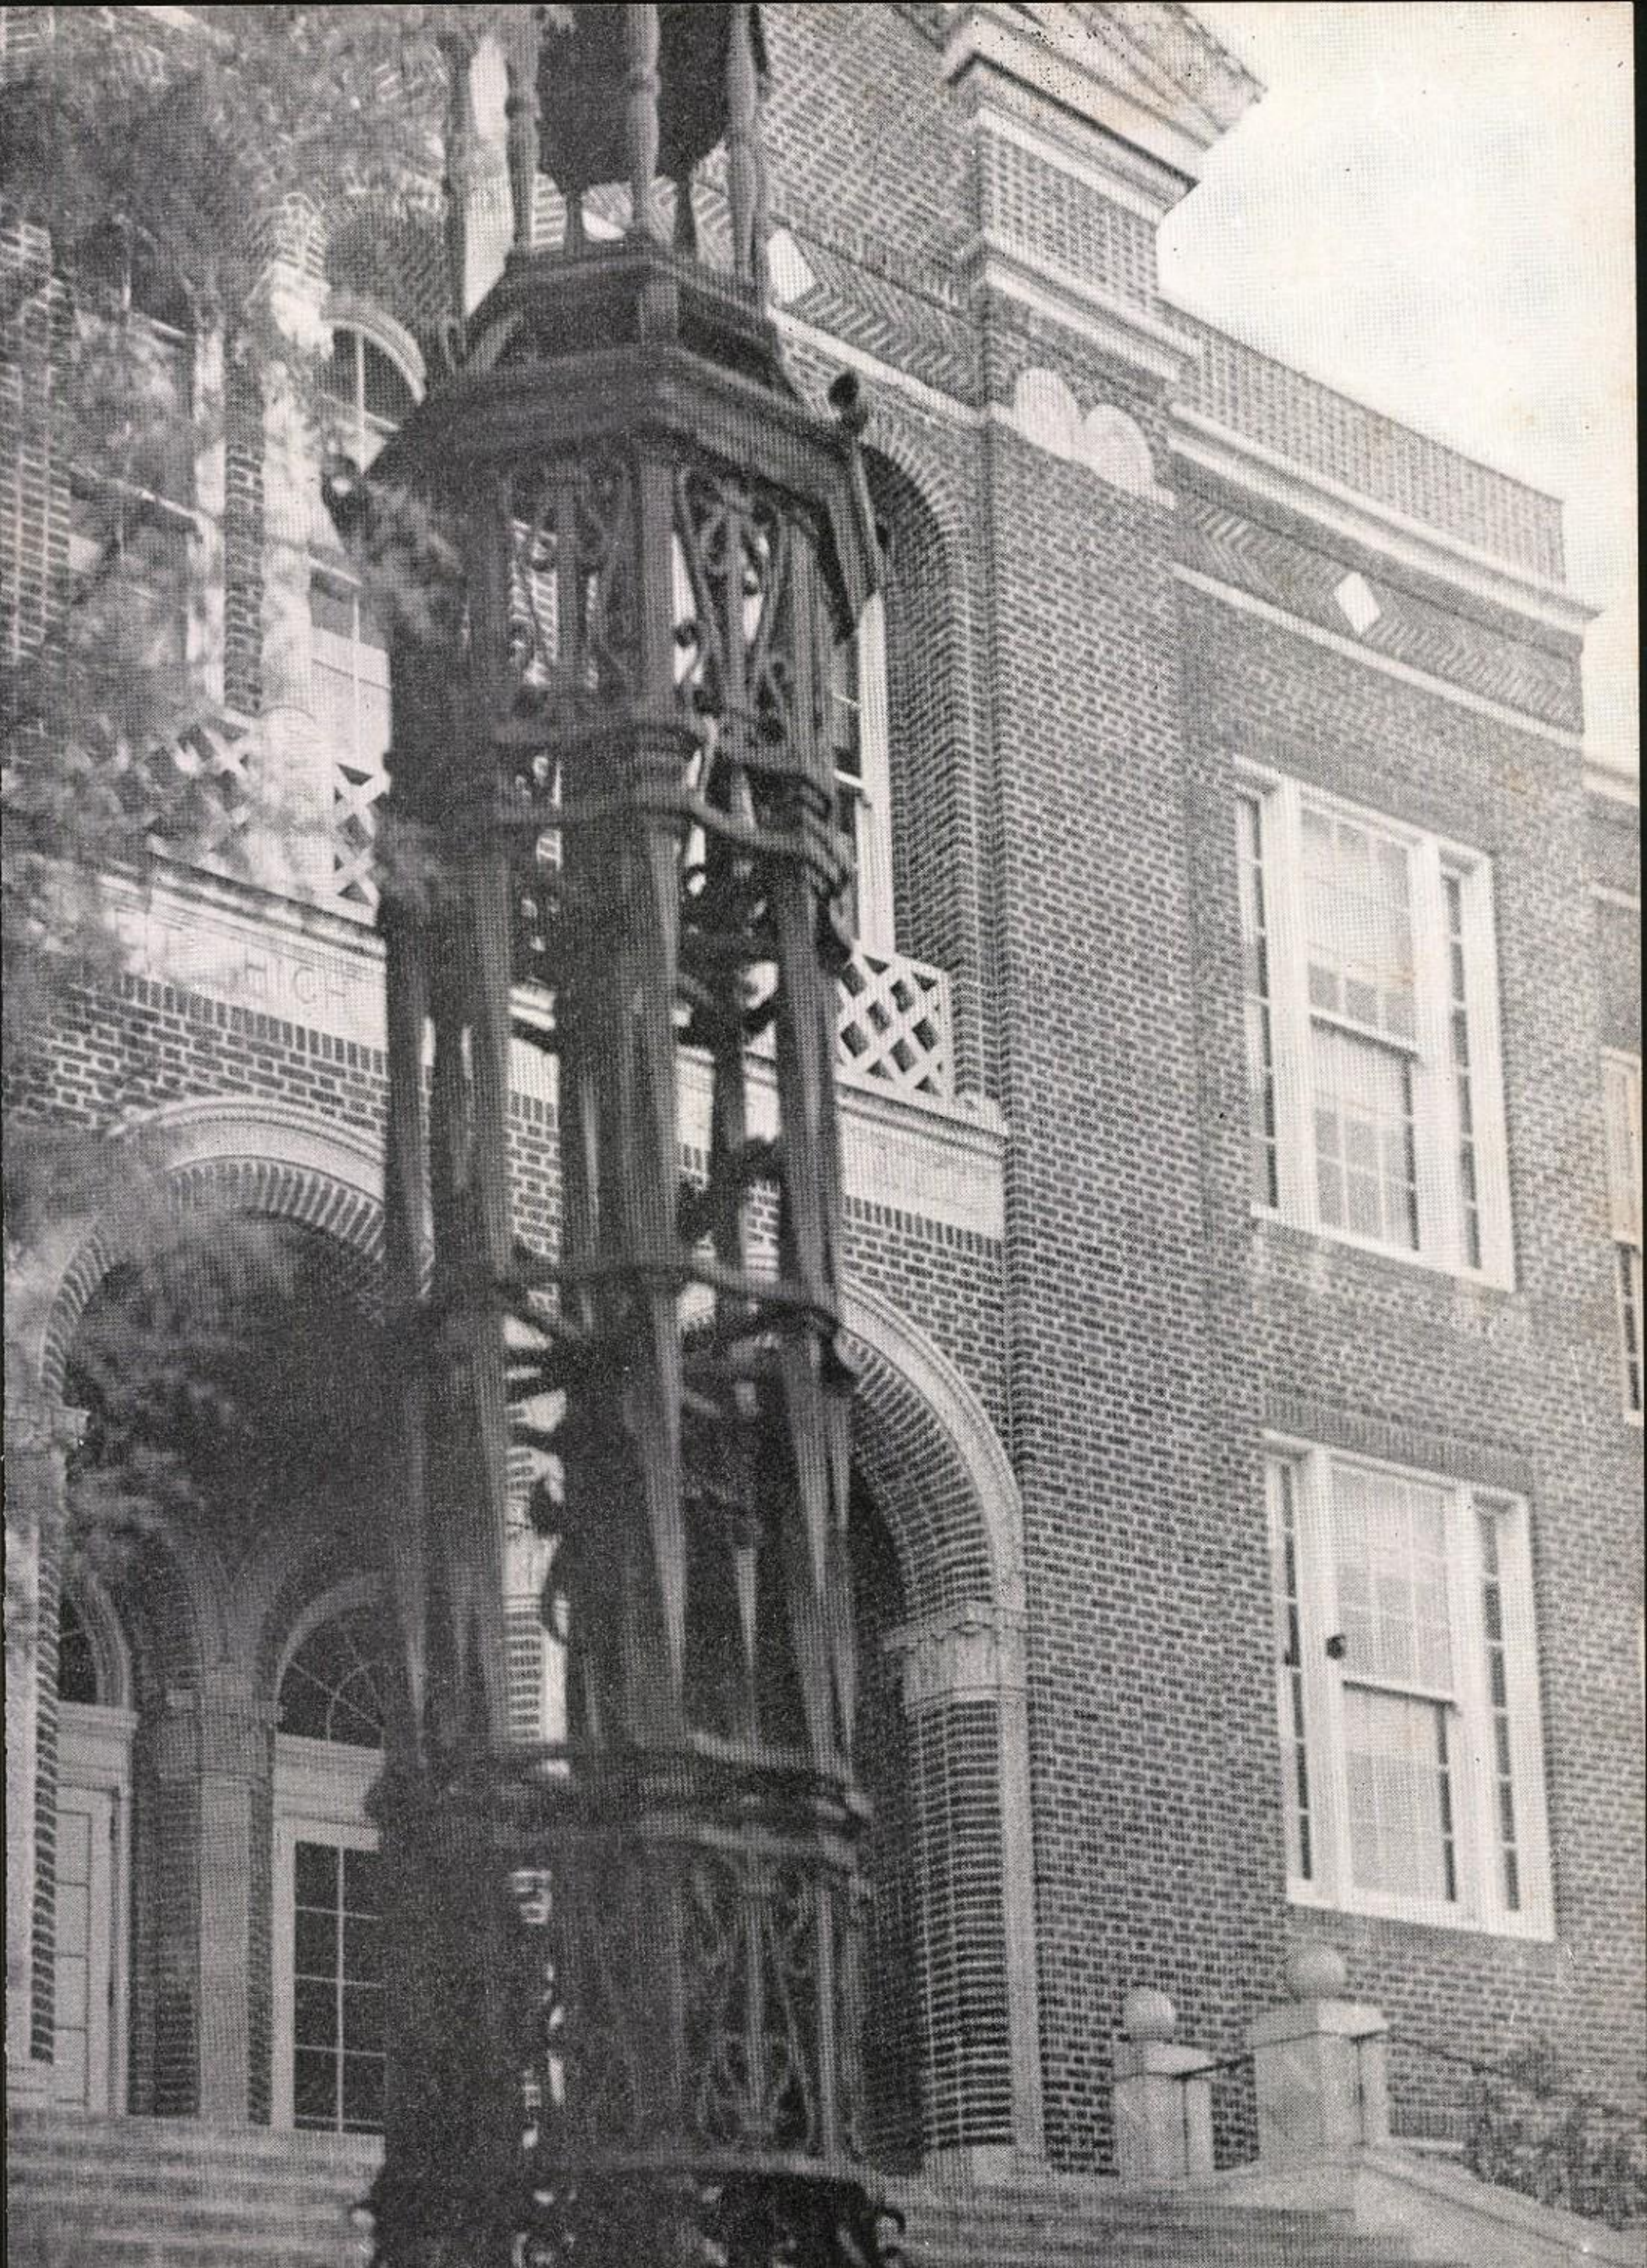

We Sunset Seniors—four hundred strong
Of loyal hearts and true,
Our task is done, the victory's won;
So now we say, "Adieu"!

Ambition knocks at every heart—
And, Seniors, please be wise.
Aim high—let courage strength impart—
Look up—Launch out—Arise!

Dear Alma Mater, Sunset High,
We'll honor, we'll love, alway.
"Long live good friendship!" is our cry,
"God speed you on your way!"

JO ANNE PENNINGTON

---

To Mr. Cook, Mr. Lancaster, Mrs. Presson, and Mrs. Jennings we offer sincere appreciation for the efficient way in which each has helped to make our school better during this year. As acting principals, Mr. Cook and Mr. Lancaster stepped quickly from class room to office where they directed Sunset affairs with judgment and understanding. Mrs. Presson and Mrs. Jennings, both of whom are new to the Sunset office, have already become a well loved and greatly needed part of the Sunset staff. We thank all of these persons for the part they have played in keeping our school one to be proud of.

February 27, 1947

TO MY SENIORS:

I keep these quotations under the glass on my desk at all times:

The first one is by George Horace Lorimer, "It is good to have money and the things money can buy, but it is good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure you haven't lost the things money can't buy."

The second one is by Samuel Johnson, "If man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man, Sir, should keep his friendship in constant repair."

The third one is anonymous, "Get thy spindle and distaff ready and God will send the flax."

Please remember these for me and may I wish for you the very best that life has to offer.

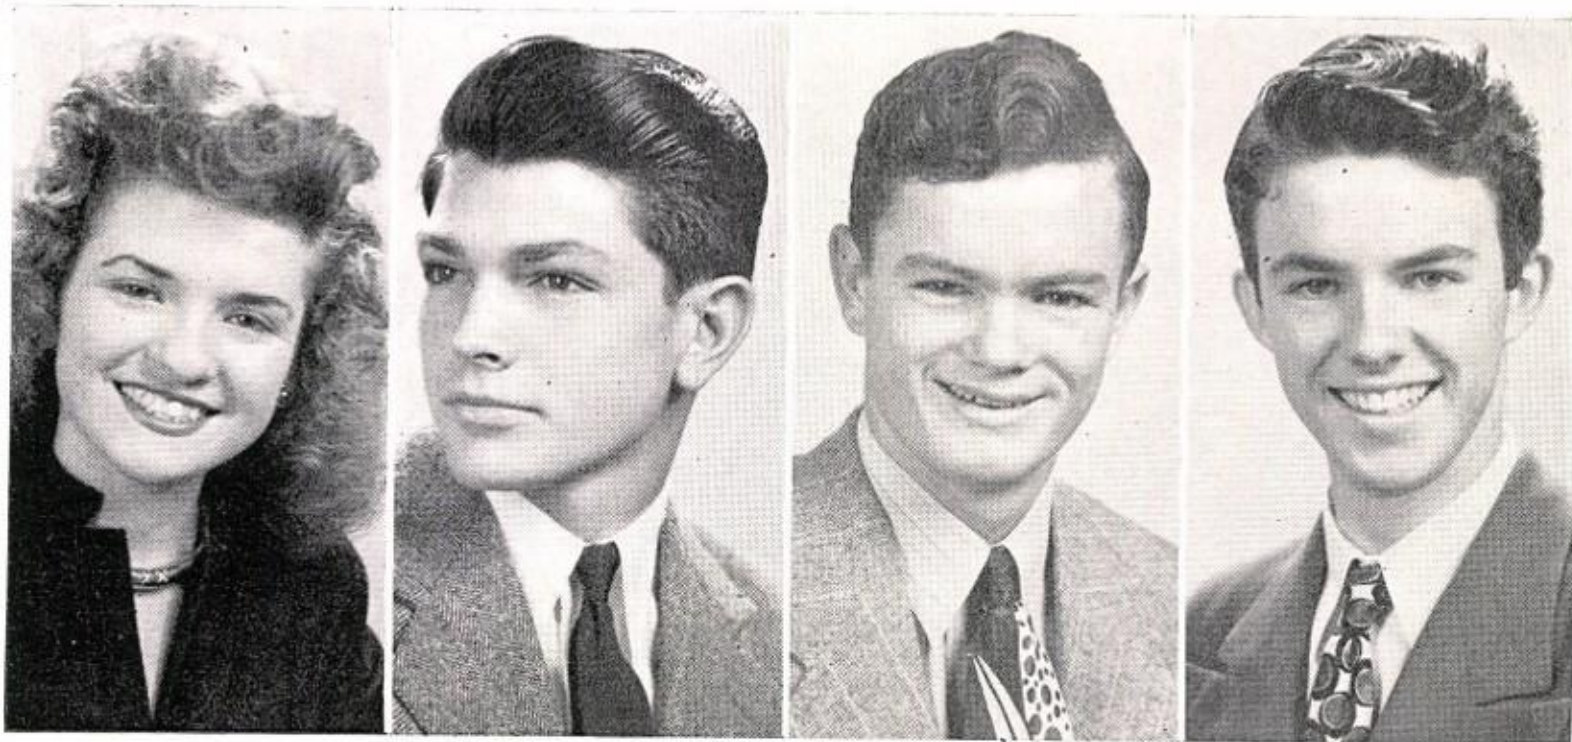

Sincerely yours,

FAREWELL TO DREAMS

By Stewart Vannerson

Have you ever thought when the moon is high,
And the wind is blowing wild,
Of the hopes and schemes you often dreamed,
When you were just a child?

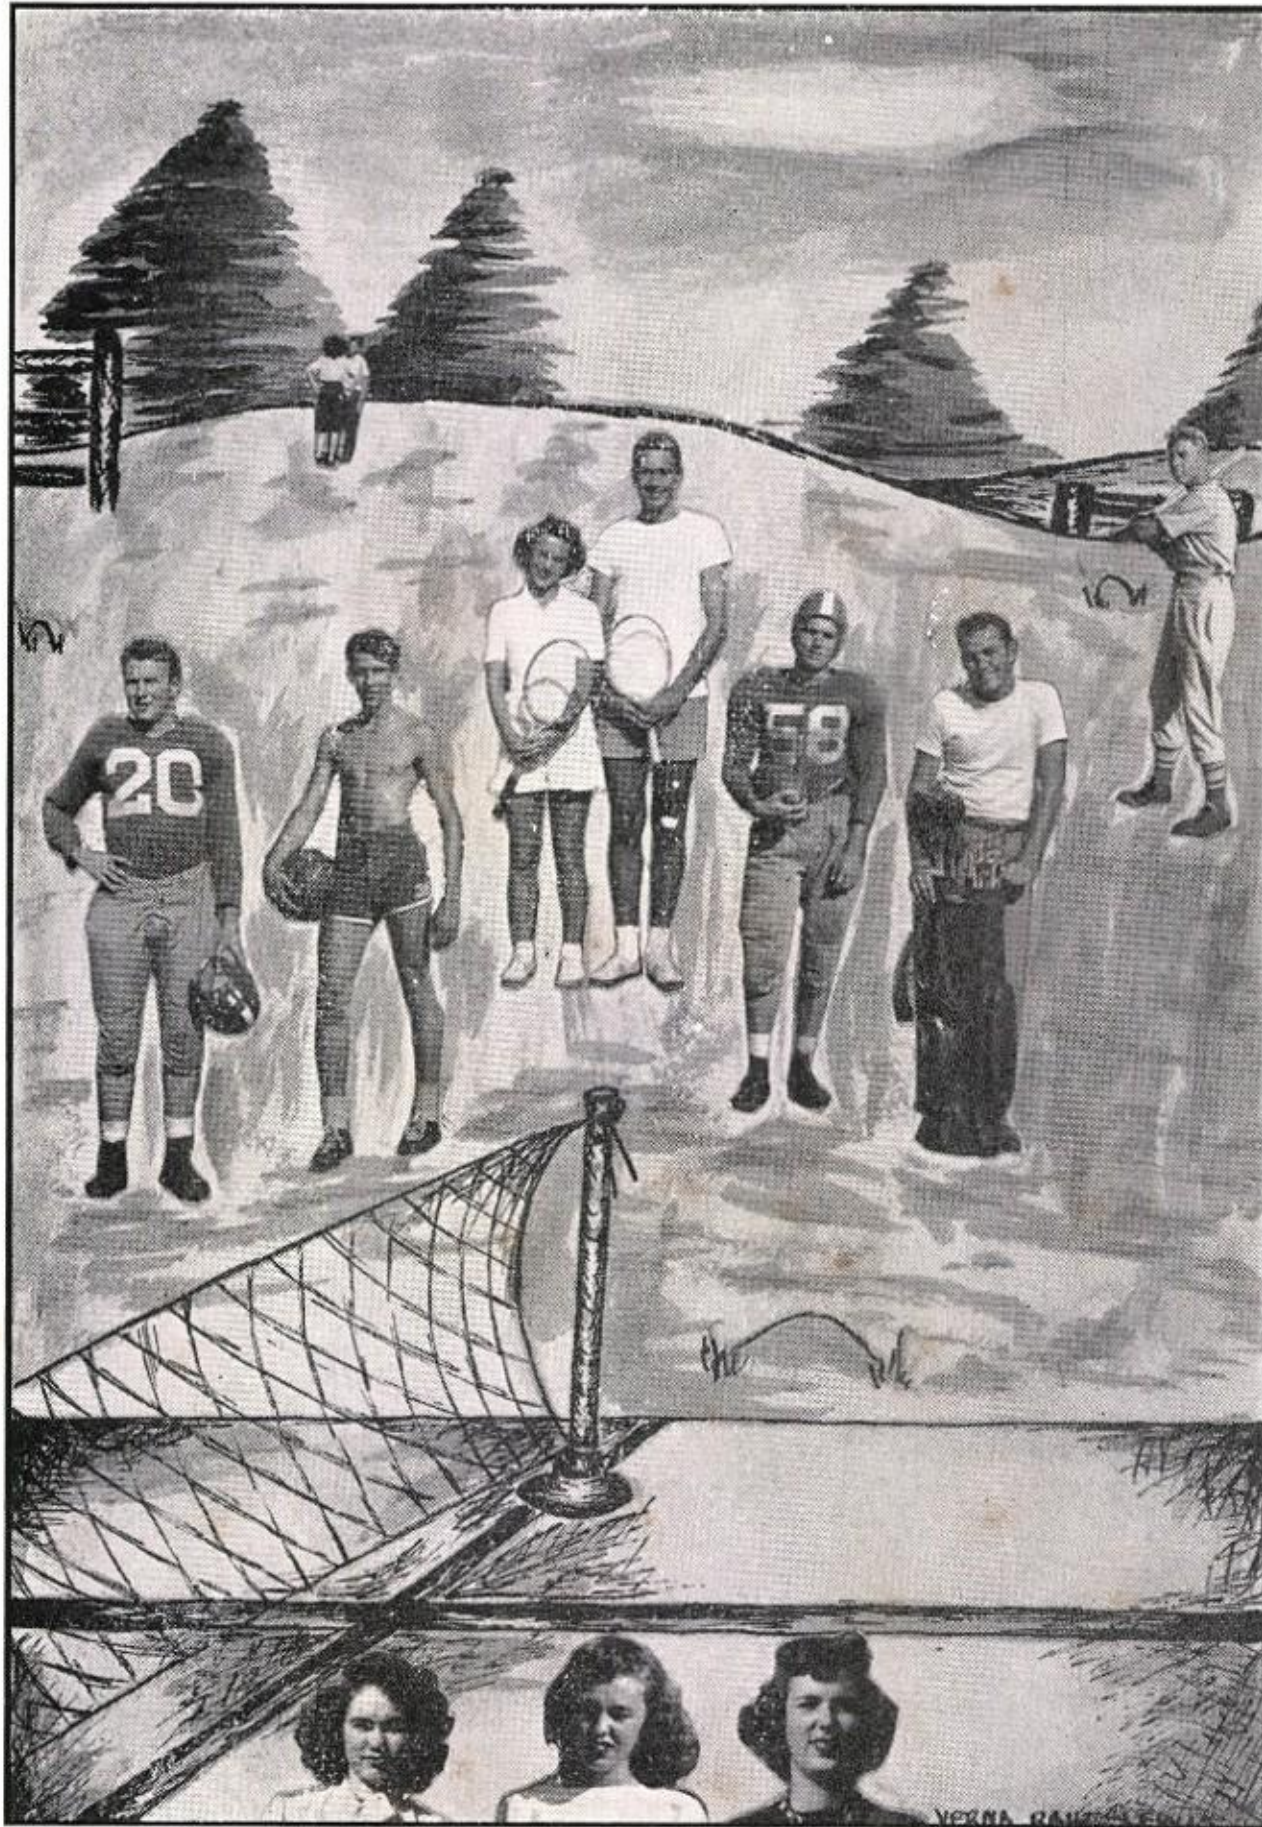

Have you ever remembered your dreams of the sea,
Of pirates bad and bold,
Of fighting and racing and loving and
Chasing, and hunting for buried gold?

Have you ever remembered your thoughts
Of love, of winning your lady fair,
By dashing to her on a stallion of white
Overladen with jewels rare?

And when the sun shines in the East,
And through your window streams,
Have you ever wondered why, oh, why,
You ever lost your dreams.

Youth is the door to romance,
A door that will dispose
Of barren dreams forever,
And, silently, softly, close.
